

First upon arriving at the Celebration, regardless of the day, register at headquarters, receiving the Official Insignia and the Souvenir Program. Tax, $1.00 per person. Children, free.

Monday, June 24, Salem-- Headquarters, Hotel Hawthorne. Forenoon, assembly.

1 P. M. -- Leave hotel for Pageant and Tour, visiting Westcott's home lot (1635-38), site of first meeting house (1629), Peabody Museum, Essex Institute (including the Ward house, 1684), and House of Seven Gables (1683).

7 P. M. -- Dinner, Hotel Hawthorne.

Tuesday, June 25 -- Leave Hotel Hawthorne by autos 8:30 A. M., visiting points of historical interest in Lexington, Concord, Cambridge, Bunker Hill Monument, Boston, Hingham (where Westcott probably passed his first night in America), and Plymouth, arriving at Providence in evening.

Wednesday, June 26, Providence -- Headquarters, Narragansett Hotel.

9 A. M. -- Assembly hour.

10 A.M. -- Gather on Court House Plaza (two blocks from hotel), to visit nearby site of Westcott's home lot (1638-47) and old First Baptist Church (1775), where a family picture will be taken and commemorative services will be held.

2:30 P.M. -- Tour of Providence, from Court House Plaza, visiting sites of homes of first settlers and other points of historical interest.

7 P. M. -- Dinner, Narragansett Hotel.

Thursday, June 27, Providence -- Headquarters, Narragansett Hotel.

9 A. M. -- Assembly hour.

10 A.M. -- Second biennial meeting of Society of Stukely Westcott Descendants in the First Baptist Church.

2:30 P.M. -- Tour, starting from Court House Plaza, visiting Roger Williams Park (with Betsey Williams Cottage, 1773), Gaspee Point (off which the first blood of the Revolution was spilled, 1772), Pawtuxet and Pawtuxet Falls (all Arnold family section), Hoxie and Coles (home lands of lateral members of the family), Conimicut and Shawomet (the gate-ways to "Old Warwick"), and through "Old Warwick", stopping near the corner of the Shore Road and Shady Lane, where exercises will be held on the home lot where Stukely Westcott passed the closing thirty years of his long, eventful life (1647-77) and visiting the site of his family burying ground. Proceeding from here past the old Arnold Tavern (where Gen. Prescott was imprisoned after his daring capture by Major William Barton and his men 1777), site of Stone House (only house in "Old Warwick" not burned by the Indians, 1676), Apponaug, Coventry (most westerly section of Westcott's land at the time of his death), Westcott (originally owned by Holden Randall, then by the Rice family, and since 1830 by the Westcotts), and thence to old Sarle's Corners (now Oak Lawn station), near which is the farm owned by Dr. Niles Westcott and which has been continuously owned by his paternal ancestors since about the year 1700. In this section and immediately north about Knightsville and Cranston, both of which will follow in the tour, sons of the first Jeremiah lived and died, their graves being on their old farm lands.

7 P. M. -- Dinner, Narragansett Hotel.

Friday, June 28 -- (Optional Tour) -- Leave Court House Plaza, 8:30 A. M., visiting East Greenwich, Wickford, Narragansett Pier, Jamestown, Newport (and grave of Damaris Westcott Arnold), 10 mile drive, Fort Adams, Portsmouth (where Westcott died Jan. 12, 1677).

Saturday, June 29 -- (Optional Tour) -- Leave Court House Plaza, 8:30 A. M., for tour to Provincetown on Cape Cod and return. All day trip. Fare $3.

Sunday, June 30 -- Those attending the Celebration and Third Biennial Reunion on Tuesday, July 2, at Milford Township, Otsego County, N.Y., will depart from the Narragansett Hotel at 9 A. M.

TOURS

Tuesday, June 25, 1935.

Lv. Salem, 8:30 A. M.

Ar. Lexington, 9:30 A. M. "Birthplace of American Liberty." 1. Painting of the Battle of Lexington in Town Hall. 2. Hayes Memorial Fountain with statue of Minute Man. 3. Boulders on Common locate positions of old belfry from which the alarm was sounded April 19, 1775, and the line of the Minute Men. 4. Buckman Tavern, meeting-place of the Minute Men; and other points of historical interest.

Lv. Lexington, 10:00 A.M.

Ar. Concord, 10:30 A.M. 1. Site of Battle of Concord Bridge, April 19, 1775, where "the shot heard round the world" was fired. 2. Battle Monument. 3. Minute Man Statue. 4. Old Manse, witness of the battle. 5. Site where the British captured Paul Revere.

Lv. Concord, 11:00 AM

Ar. Cambridge, 11:30 A. M. 1. Cambridge Common, from which 1,200 armed citizens marched to the Battle of Bunker Hill. 2. Christ Church, where Washington worshipped during the siege of Boston. 3. Site of the Washington Elm; beneath this giant elm Washington received command of the Continental Army, July 3, 1775. 4. Fay House, built in the 17th century, in which Rev. Samuel Gilman wrote "Fair Harvard." 5. Brattle Street, originally an Indian trail; Vassall House, Craigie, or Longfellow House, which was used as a hospital for wounded soldiers, Longfellow Park, and site of "The Village Smithy", Longfellow's inspiration for "Beneath a spreading chestnut tree, the village smithy stands." 6. Auburn Street, passing Mount Auburn Cemetery, where many famous men are buried, and almost opposite is "Elmwood", erected 1763, and used as a hospital following the Battle of Bunker Hill and by Gen. Benedict Arnold as a temporary headquarters. 7. Luncheon (65 cents) at The Commander, after which, if time permits, a visit to "Old Harvard".

Lv. Cambridge, 1:00 P.M.

Ar. Bunker Hill Monument, 1:15 P. M. Corner stone laid in 1825 by Gen. Lafayette; completed in 1842; height, 221 feet, with 294 stone steps to the top. (Picture.)

Lv. Bunker Hill, 1:45 P.M.

Ar. Boston, 2:00 P. M. First, if on time, visit the U. S. Frigate, "Constitution", at the Charleston Navy Yard. 2. Charles River Esplanade. 3. Public Gardens. 4. Boston Common. 5. State House. 6. Old State House. 7. Memorial of Boston Massacre. 8. Faneuil Hall. 9. Custom House Tower, from which a view of metropolitan Boston may be had. 10. Site of "Boston Tea Party". 11. South Station.

Lv. Boston, 4:00 P. M.

Ar. Hingham, 4:45 P. M. Westcott passed his first night in America here, June 24, 1635, before going to Salem. 1. Old Ship Church, built 1681. 2. Town Mill, bears date 1643.

Lv. Hingham, 4:50 P. M.

Ar. Plymouth, 6:00 P. M. "The birth-place of the nation", 1620, fifteen years before Westcott reached New England. 1. Plymouth Memorial Building. 2. Pilgrim Hall. 3. Seammell Monument. 4. First Church. 5. Burial Hill. 6. Sparrow House, 1656. 7. First Prison. 8. Harlow House, 1667. 8. Training Green. 9. Bartlett Burgess House, 1726. 10. Howland House, 1666. 11. Pilgrim Spring. 12. Pilgrim Maiden

(See page 2.)

Tours Continued--Page 2.

Statue. 13. Brewster Gardens. 14. Site First House, 1621. 15. Pilgrims First Buried. 16. Statue of Massasoit. 17. Old Elm, planted 1812. 18. Plymouth Rock House (Dinner, $1.00). 19. Plymouth Rock. 20. Pilgrim Mothers' Foundation. 21. First use of Ether. 22. Gen. James Warren House. Lv. Plymouth, 7:45 P. M.

Ar. Providence, R. I., about 9:30 P. M.

Wednesday, June 26, 1935.

2:30 P. M. Tour of Providence, starting from the Court House plaza, first going north on Main Street, along the east side of which the original settlements were made by and as follows:

- | | | |
|---------------------|-----------------------|----------------------|
| 1. Chad Brown | 11. William Carpenter | 21. Thomas James |
| 2. Daniel Abbott | 12. John Sweet | 22. William Arnold |
| 3. William Reynolds | 13. Alice Daniels | 23. Francis Wickes |
| 4. STUKELY WESTCOTT | 14. William Harris | 24. Benedict Arnold |
| 5. Ezekiel Holiman | 15. John Throckmorton | 25. John Greene, Jr. |
| 6. Richard Waterman | 16. Roger Williams | 26. Edward Manton |
| 7. Francis Weston | 17. Joshua Verin | 27. Thomas Painter |
| 8. Thomas Angell | 18. Widow Reeve | 28. Matthew Waller |
| 9. Thomas Olney | 19. John Smith | 29. Gregory Dexter |
| 10. Robert Cole | 20. John Greene, Jr. | |

Thence, visiting numerous historic houses of Revolutionary days on the way to Brown University and College Hill, and returning to Main Street (South) at Fox Boulevard, and going north, passing (on the right) locations of the "house lots" of:

- | | | |
|---------------------|-----------------------|-----------------------------|
| 30. Robert Williams | 39. Widow Jane Sears | 48. John Field |
| 31. Chris. Unthank | 40. Widow John Tiler | 49. William Field |
| 32. William Hawkins | 41. Nicholas Power | 50. Richard Scott |
| 33. Robert West | 42. William Wickenden | 51. George Pickard |
| 34. Hugh Bewitt | 43. William Mann | 52. John Warner |
| 35. John Lippett | 44. William Burrows | (and next north, is the |
| 36. Matthew Weston | 45. Adam Goodwin | ("house lot" of Chad Brown, |
| 37. Edward Hart | 46. Thomas Harris | (from which location this |
| 38. Thomas Hopkins | 47. Joshua Winsor | (tour started. |

Continuing the tour from this point through Market Square to the State Capitol, and thence returning to the Narragansett Hotel and the Court House plaza, where the tour ends.

Thursday, June 27, 1935.

2:00 P. M. Tour through Westcott homeland in "Old Warwick", starting from Court House plaza.

1. Roger Williams Park, with Betsey Williams cottage, 1773.
2. Gaspee Point, scene of first blood shed of the Revolution, 1773.
3. Pawtuxet and Pawtuxet Falls, homeland of the families of William Arnold, Zachariah Rhodes and William Carpenter.
4. Hoxie and Coles, homelands of lateral ancestors of those names.
5. Conimicut and Shawomet, gateways to the heart of "Old Warwick".

(See Page 3.)

6. Shore Road at Sandy Lane (see diagram in Program), near the southwest corner of which is the frontage of the six-acre "house lot" of Stukely Westcott, 1647-77, and adjoining is his burial lot. Unveiling of tablet to his memory. (Picture).
7. David Arnold Tavern, where Gen. Prescott was imprisoned, 1777.
8. Site of Stone House, only house in "Old Warwick" not burned by the Indians, March, 1676.
9. Apponaug, near the site of the mill of Jeremiah, Jr.
10. Coventry, most westerly part of Westcott's land, where his grandson, Jeremiah, Jr., settled in late life, and where his granddaughter, Eleanor, after becoming the wife of William Stone, lived and died.
11. Westcott, which section has been so known since 1830.
12. Sarle's Corners, now Oak Lawn Station, near which is the farm settled by Benjamin (2-Jeremiah, 1-Stukely) Westcott about the year 1700. Burial ground where sleep six generations. Present house, built about 1832, is on one-third of the original farm, and is now owned by and is the home of Dr. Niles Westcott.
13. Knightsville (or "Monkeytown", as it was originally called), and
14. Cranston, north of Sarle's Corners. This whole section was chiefly the farms of Stukely, Josiah, Samuel and William Westcott, brothers of Benjamin and grandsons of the Family Founder. Their graves and those of some of their descendants, are in burying grounds on their old farms, some of which have long since disappeared.

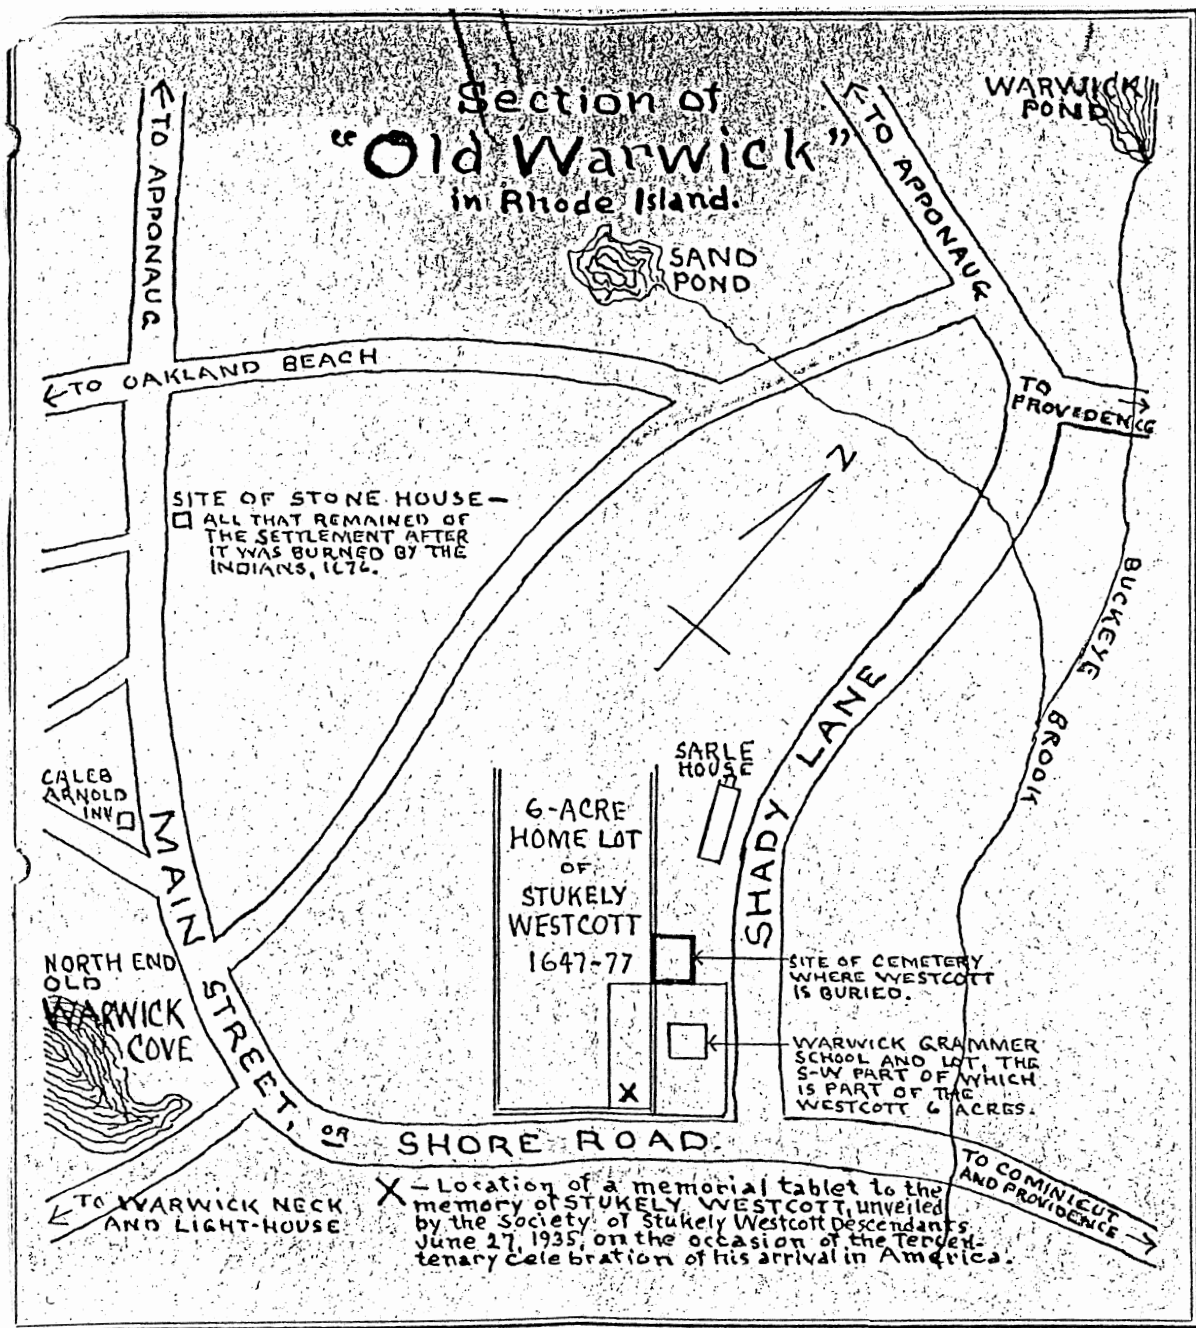

Tour to the Narragansett Country and Newport, Friday, June 28, 1935.

9:00 A. M. Starting from Court House plaza, tour to:

1. East Greenwich, settled 1682; birthplace of Gen. Nathaniel Greene.
2. Half-mile south and to the east, is the old Quidnessett section--the home of Robert Westcott, son of Stukely.
3. Wickford, originally the Indian trading post of Richard Smith, 1632; historic Narragansett Church, built in 1700.
4. Continuing south and to the west, swamp land where the fight with "King Philip" and his Indian warriors, took place, December, 1676.
5. Narragansett Pier, one of America's famous summer resorts.
6. Return to ferry at Saunderstown, cross Narragansett Bay to Jamestown on Conanicut Island, on which were the farm homes of some of the early Westcotts and allied families. Again, by ferry, cross the Bay to Newport, the fashionable year-round resort.
7. Newport, settled 1639. (Luncheon.) Grave of Damaris Westcott Arnold; the old mill nearby; Newport Historical Society with its numerous relics of pre-Revolutionary days; headquarters of Generals Washington and Rochambeau; famous 10-mile boulevard drive; Fort Adams.
8. Portsmouth, settled 1638. Stukely Westcott died here at the home of his grandson, on January 12, 1677.
9. Mount Hope Bridge, and return to Providence.

Saturday, June 29, 1935.

If you plan to go on the tour to Cape Cod, make your reservation not later than Wednesday evening, June 26.

PAGE FROM THE 1935
TERCENTENARY PROGRAM

CORRECTIONS--On the diagram in the Souvenir Program, showing section of "Old Warwick," change "Shady Lane" to "Stony Lane," and "Caleb Arnold Inn" to "David Arnold Inn". The Westcott "home lot", instead of extending back in north-westerly direction, runs almost due north.

